The Military History Symposium, will be Saturday, 14 October 2017, 0900-1500 at Texas A&M-Central Texas Warrior Hall. The theme this year is "The 100th Anniversary of the US Entry Into WWI."

Keynote speaker will be Dr. Richard Faulkner, Army Command and General Staff College Faculty. Dr. Faulkner is the author of several books dealing with WWI. This event is being co-sponsored by the Army

Center for Military History and there will be displays and artifacts from the WWI era. Cost will be $15 with lunch. Registration: <https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/artsandscience/symposium.php>. More information and flyers will be available at the August meeting.

CenTex MOAA Meet

August meeting will be at 11:30 hours at Shilo Inn, Killeen, TX. Guest speaker will be: Dan Wallrath, Founder of Operation Finally Home. He will discuss the program projects.

Make your reservations early on our website: www.centexmoaa.com. Bring a guest/potential member. CenTex MOAA has contracted for a minimum of 40 attendees for each lunch at Shilo Inn.

President's Notes Moving Ahead!

August is often thought of as the last month for vacations, relaxing on the beach, getting one last visit with family, or taking a deep breath before school activities begin.

For our MOAA group, it's time to rev the engines and check the oil, gas, and tires in preparation for our final race to the finish in November. What's happening that requires all this preparation? Several items are coming up and each member or potential member should be ready.

Our CenTex MOAA will be voting to update its Bylaws, opening up membership with voting rights for spouses of active duty members and surviving widows. Before the 18 August meeting, you'll receive an email from the CenTex MOAA Secretary with the proposed changes highlighted for easy decision-making. The full vote will come at the August meeting.

Another preparation will be for our excellent speakers that our First Vice President, DeWitt Mayfield has been lining up. Get ready for powerhouse presentations, which DeWitt has ensured all of our speakers have delivered without fail.

Prepare yourselves for service! If you haven't been on the Board of Directors (at least in a little while) or you have skills to contribute as Secretary or Treasurer, we need you on our team!

Talk with Reggie Bass. He'll be sure to connect you with the right individuals to assist or take on the role of one our superb leadership roles in the organization. Elections will be in November.

Finally, ready yourselves for an excellent time of supporting up and coming leaders, connecting with other veterans, and being part of our great outreach to the Fort Hood and Central Texas community.

We'll be having a MOAA Social in the Fall, 21 October, at the Wildflower Country Club in Temple. Together, we are making a difference!

Spotlight on Members

Duty, Honor, Country is still Dick Archer's motto.

Richard "Dick" Archer began his journey into the military in Michigan. "My brother was drafted and my neighbor was the Commander for the ROTC unit (at Central Michigan University) I was in. I felt duty bound. I had been in many civic and service clubs in HS and College. It was a natural for me to accept a leadership role. I never looked back and was proud to be a US ARMY commissioned officer. I especially liked the ORDNANCE branch. The ORDC branch was special areas of support and it was very interesting to be in on some early computer logistics work. We had the NCR 500 for Second Armored Division and it was cutting edge at the time." Dick served 2 years active duty and 7 years as a reserve officer. He is a former Capt. USA.

"The friendship and team work were something I have never seen ever in any other culture. The US Army with all its flaws, is well organized and well managed. I respected authority and I had no problems being a young "butter bar" and had a chance to really mature. (It was my first time away from home!) I lived in the same house for 21 years. My parents were married 67 years and were members of the same Methodist church in Mt Pleasant Michigan all those years."

Dick and Kay Cartwright Archer have been married for 43 years. Kay has 2 Baylor University degrees. English and Counseling. Her 36-year career is in Education. Both, Kay and Dick are active at Christ Episcopal Church in Temple. They have 4 children, 2 boys and 2 girls.

Kay has been 9 years cancer free. "Testimony: Prayers healed. Never took radiation or chemo." After leaving the military, Dick worked for varied companies in marketing and human resources; from banks to hydraulics, to a college. While Director of Institutional Advancement, Temple College he discovered his passion in raising money for scholarships. "I did raise money for scholarships for 14 years at Temple College and that is where my passion is for MOAA. I believe scholarships are the beginning of opportunity for many."

Today, Dick is employed with the Texas Veterans Land Board. He serves as a director, Temple Chamber of Commerce; Trustee, Temple College; Director, Emeritus Medicus; trustee MH-MR board; Co-founder, Association for Pet Adoption Center; Co-founder, Temple Personnel Association; Central Texas Council of Governments.

As the Immediate Past President, Dick says, "MOAA has been a great new opportunity for fellowship and team work. I love MOAA."

Membership

Be thinking of potential Centex MOAA directors for 2018.

A director's job is to: attend board meetings and serve as a voting member of the board of directors; provide input to the president on issues of chapter management, finances, programs and special matters; establish and review chapter by-laws, policies, procedures, operating instructions and other guiding documents annually and make recommendations for revision as needed; serve as greeter at chapter functions; perform other duties the president might assign.

Contact Reggie Bass 5825 Greenforest Circle, Killeen TX 76543 or call

Faith's Corner Let's have a cup of Coffee

"Let's have a cup of coffee", is my invitation to you to sit down, share our thoughts and simple truths over a cup of coffee or tea. If you have comments or questions, just speak up like we are conversing in my home or yours. So, pour yourself a cuppa' and let's begin.

"Speaking" is what I've been thinking a lot about lately. Have you ever had that empty helpless feeling when you are called on to speak? We don't know what to say. There are times when we truly want to share what is in our hearts about our faith, our love, our loss or our concerns, but words fail us. Or rather the right words don't seem to come forth. So we stand there and just don't say anything. A friend needs a comforting word from us, a family member is not well, a neighbor has suffered a loss; what do we say?

One of my breath prayers that flows through my brain sometimes is: "Lord give me the words". Now to be honest, the words don't just automatically come rolling off my tongue. I have to go to my Bible and read: "The Holy Spirit will give you the right words even as you are standing there. Luke 12:12

Or when I am trying to say the right thing at the right moment, I think back to Proverbs 31:26, "When she speaks, her words are wise, and kindness is the rule for everything she says." WOW, that's a powerful statement! This means that whatever we say, whenever we say it and however we say it is important. Kindness, caring and truth are equally important. We have to trust God to give us the right words to speak so we may encourage others, give them hope, and share their happiness. My breath prayer might be: "Lord give me the wise words, the kind words to speak to help." Now I know it's hard sometimes to breathe kindness into a conversation when someone has slighted you or when you have had a long miserable day, or you are in a hurry or someone or something has interrupted you or there is a conflict and tension in the air. But if we will try to stop, breathe deep, then say our breath prayer, it might just be the remedy to relax us for the wise words, the kind words to speak. Blessings.

WE WANT YOU!

Editor's Desk

One benefit of CenTex MOAA is keeping in touch with likeminded people who value military service to our country and who are serving or who have served in the military arena.

Submit your stories of experiences, places stationed, events during your service. War stories, events in your career, experiences with personnel, at posts, bases, airfields, aboard ships, war zones, campaigns and deployments. Or anything chapter members might enjoy learning about. Humorous, factual stories are welcome. Quotable quotes are always appreciated. Especially when you can identify who said them and circumstances under which they were said.

Articles are due 2 weeks prior to the month of next issue. Try to keep your articles 700 words or less. Some contributions may be edited for length to comply with newsletter space.
